

“Bobby, I just realized something. . .

. . . I can't be in touch with my own humanity if I'm taking someone else's humanity away. It's obvious those girls in the lad mags don't really like being reduced to faceless, nameless holes, called abusive names, and forced to perform painful sex acts – all to personally gratify ME. It's not right. Today I kick the porn habit. You should too.”

Got humanity?

Give women back their personhood. Stop consuming porn.
